

IDI Opt-Out Policy

IDI affords certain individuals the opportunity to request that IDI cease making their personal information available via IDI's products and services. IDI will consider your request if you meet one of the following requirements and you provide the required documentation in support of your request:

- You are a public official or law enforcement officer under threat of death or serious bodily harm.
 - You must provide a letter from your supervisor on the agency's letterhead substantiating the threat. IDI reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to grant or deny your request.
 - Note: Your position as a public official or law enforcement officer, in and of itself, does not satisfy these requirements – there must be exceptional circumstances, such as a special assignment, that gives rise to the threat.
- You are a private individual subject to a substantial risk of physical harm.
 - You must provide a copy of a police report, a copy of a court protective order, or similar documentation. IDI reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to grant or deny your request.
- You are a Nevada resident seeking to make a request to opt-out of the sale of your covered information under the Nevada Privacy Act.
 - You must provide your full name, full address, email address, phone number, date of birth, and the last 4 digits of your Social Security number to IDI for verification purposes. IDI will comply with all verified requests made by Nevada residents, with respect to their "covered information" as defined by the Nevada Privacy Act.
 - Note: Certain types of data are exempt from the requirements of the Nevada Privacy Act, including data which is collected, maintained, or sold pursuant to the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act (GLBA), the Driver's Privacy Protection Act of 1994 (DPPA), publicly available information, and data that is deidentified or aggregate consumer data. Accordingly, IDI may continue to collect, maintain, and sell these exempt types of information about you, even after granting your request.

All requests, with the required supporting documentation, are to be submitted to the following address, or emailed to privacy@ididata.com:

IDI Opt-Out Request
P.O. Box 812680
Boca Raton, Florida 33481

IDI will respond to your request within the following time periods, as measured from the date of IDI's receipt of all required documentation:

- Within 60 days, for all requests made under the Nevada Privacy Act, and
- Within 90 days for all other requests made under this Policy.

Information provided by you in support of your request will be used by IDI solely in considering your request and communicating with you pertaining to your request. This policy applies to personal information made available through IDI's products and services only. Granting your request will not prevent third parties from displaying your personal information.
